BETTER STEEL CONDITIONS. Reductions of Price Having Good Effect

in Several Directions—Stacking Pig. PITTSBURG, March 14.-There has been an increase of small orders placed during the last week and inquiries for larger tonnages of finished steel are more numerous. The only finished product which has not been reduced is wire, and there has been a cessation of buying. The jobbers filled up last fall and during the winter and the producers have decided to protect them. As cut nails are selling at $1.30 per keg, as against $1.95 for wire nails, the latter will have to be brought down in price to meet cut nail competition. Wire nails have heretofore sold lower than cut nails. The reduction in tin plates of $5 per ton does not injure the jobbers very much, as there are no large stocks. There will be an adjustment in some orders and concessions will be made. Previous to the reduction in prices the independent companies had been filling up with business. The leading producer is making a strong canvass for business under new quotations. The American Sheet and Tin Plate Company is operating 164 mills, and preparations are under way the Cambridge, Ohio, plant, who have been on a strike for more than a year, have been meeting with the superintendent with a view to settling differences. Twenty more sheet mills went into operation during the week.

With a reduction in the price of sheet bars from $27.50 to $25.50, the independent sheet and tin plate producers are not in a position to raid the market. One independent concern sold a quantity of billets to a Western implement maker at $20 per ton Pittsburg, but promptly withdrew the quotation when its attention was called to the fact that a wide open market would result if such prices were continued.

The American Bridge Company has received specifications on many orders placed several months ago and has had to increase the working force and hours at its Ambridge (Pa.) plant. In normal times 2,800 men are employed and now 2,000 men are working full time. Favorable prices on structural shapes have brought out a flood of inquiries, and contracts were closed last week in Chicago aggregating 40,000 tons. It is estimated that contracts for 100,000 tons of shapes will be placed by April 1 from all parts of the country. Steel producers are adhering to the quotation of 1.30 cents per pound and are only accepting orders for specific work and not for promiscuous tonnage. In this way no extended contracts can be placed and it leaves the steel maker the chance of getting higher prices later on if conditions permit.

Orders for plates have been much larger since the price was reduced. The steel car makers are bidding on large contracts for the railroads which should terminate in orders before the close of May. As there has been no buying of pig iron of consecuence, furnaces are stacking their output. The amount of iron stacked is the largest since 1837. Prices remain fairly firm. There has been a decline of 50 cents per ton on bessemer and basic, standard bessemer being offered as low as $15.50 valleys. Foundry No. 2 and basic are quoted at $15 valleys.
